

For speech and language pathologists and special educators....

Identifying and Working with English Learners with Learning Differences and Learning Disabilities

March 20-21, 2012

8:30am-3:30pm | 12 PDPs | 1 ASHA CEU (2 days; brown bag lunch)
 Collaborative for Educational Services, Northampton, MA
 $368 CES Members | $448 Nonmembers

Instructors:

Debbie Zacarian, Ed.D; Audrey Morse, MS, CCC-SLP

This two day ASHA-approved professional development training guides specialists working with English language learners with learning differences and learning disabilities. The workshop includes a range of collaborative and self-reflective learning activities. Throughout the professional development experience, we will examine these questions:

- How do I design and enact routines and practices to support the varied language and cultural experiences and learning styles of the students with whom I work?
- How can I identify language difference and language disability?
- What strategies can I use to enhance my students' language learning and academic learning experience?
